CNHA Policy Center Publications Order Form

CNHA produces informational tools such as Desktop Reference Guides (DRG) and Informational Policy Briefs as a means to increase access to relevant information and to enable our communities to responsibly and actively engage in and contribute to the formation of policies at various levels of government. The CNHA Policy Center publications are designed to provide a comprehensive understanding of legislation and acts that impact Native Hawaiian communities and in most cases, include the full text of the legislation or act.

To order a Desktop Reference Guide or other Policy Publications, please complete and return the order form below. We will contact you to confirm your order.
